Statement of CPNI Procedures and Compliance

Trinsic Communications, Inc. ("Trinsic") does not use or permit access to CPNI to market any telecommunications or non-telecommunications services.

Trinsic does not use CPNI to market services to residential or business customers. However, in compliance with federal regulation, Trinsic incorporates training procedures for educating personnel as to authorized use of CPNI. Customer Service representatives are provided CPNI training prior to being allowed to handle customer calls. Sales and Marketing personnel are provided CPNI training as well, and all campaigns must receive approval from Trinsic's Regulatory Compliance department prior to implementation. Any personnel violating CPNI procedures will receive disciplinary action. Trinsic's disciplinary policies and procedures are published in its employee manual and provided to every company employee.

Trinsic has established a supervisory review process regarding compliance with 47 CFR 64.2009. Trinsic's Regulatory Compliance department reviews all outbound sales and marketing initiatives to ensure compliance with state and federal regulations. Trinsic's records of compliance are maintained for a minimum period of one year.

Requests for CPNI by law enforcement agencies are only granted if a subpoena is provided or if the customer provides written permission. Trinsic maintains a record of all instances where CPNI was disclosed or provided to third parties, or where third parties were allowed access to CPNI.
